

The MasterCardfdn@RUFORUM Scholarships 2017/2018

The MasterCard Foundation has partnered with the Regional Universities Forum for Capacity Building in Agriculture (RUFORUM; www.ruforum.org), a network of 66 universities in 26 African countries. The partnership focuses on 'Transforming African Agricultural Universities to meaningfully contribute to Africa's growth and development'. The aim of partnership is to transform African agricultural universities and their graduates to better respond to developmental challenges through enhanced application of science, technology, business and innovation for rural agricultural transformation.

Under this partnership, 110 undergraduate and 110 masters scholarships will be provided over a period of eight years. The scholarships target; academically deserving yet economically disadvantaged, marginalized communities and those coming from conflict and post conflict areas of Africa. The scholarships are tenable at Egerton University in Kenya and Gulu University in Uganda.

Students enrolled under this scholarship program will receive comprehensive scholarships, leadership development, life skills support, entrepreneurship training and mentorship and exposure to community engagement. For the academic year 2017/2018, 20 undergraduate and 10 masters scholarships are available of which 70% will be for Kenya and Uganda nationals. For undergraduate scholarships, 60% will be awarded to female applicants and 50% at masters.

GULU UNIVERSITY

RECOGNITION OF DISTINGUISHED ALUMNI

The Council and Senate of Gulu University in line with the mission of the University:-

"To expand access to higher education, conduct applied research and provide quality professional training to the delivery of appropriate services directed towards social transformation and conservation of bio-diversity" put in place a scheme to recognize alumni who have made significant contribution either to the nation, community or their profession.

The objectives of the scheme are;

- (i) To encourage former students to excel in their career paths.
- (ii) To keep in close contact with alumni

Every year the University will choose a theme to identify distinguished alumni. This year's theme is Outstanding Leaders in Elective Positions at District and National Level.

The University therefore invites its former students who held/hold leadership positions in the District as District Chairpersons and at the national level as Members of Parliament, Ministers or State Ministers (past and present) to submit their names to the office of the Academic Registrar Gulu University for recognition. Submissions should be made between 22 - 12 - 2016 and 6 -01 - 2017. A written submission should include brief information on the period of study at Gulu University, programme studied and leadership position one is holding or held. The University will also receive submission from any responsible citizen of Uganda.
